

Interim Acceptance for Temporary Traffic Signal System

Product: Peter Berghaus GmbH models MPB 3200 and MPB 3400

Expiry Date: 31 December 2019

This approval covers the temporary traffic signal system manufactured by Peter Berghaus GmbH models MPB 3200 and MPB 3400, and supplied in New Zealand by International Safety Products NZ Ltd, trading as Peter Berghaus New Zealand.

The above systems have been assessed in accordance with the New Zealand Transport Agency Technical Note Portable Traffic Signal Systems version 2 July 2010, and recommended for use in New Zealand as temporary traffic signals (Opus International Consultants "Temporary Traffic Signals Functionality Testing: Assessment Report on Peter Berghaus New Zealand MPB 3200 and MPB 3400 Traffic signals. Opus International Consultants Ref 528024.08)

This product is considered compliant with the requirements of the Code of Practice for Temporary Traffic Management, section B5.

Conditions of Use

The signal system may only be used over a distance not exceeding 1300m in general use or exceeding 2000 where there is a clear line of sight between the signal units.

The signals system must be installed and maintained in accordance with the product installation/maintenance manual and relevant NZ Transport Agency specifications. NZ Transport Agency specifications and standards shall prevail where there is discrepancy between the product manual(s) and the NZ Transport Agency specifications and standards.

Installers must ensure that they are familiar with relevant conditions, requirements and limitations of the system.

A copy of this Interim Acceptance Letter must be appended to the Installation Manual.

Acceptance

This acceptance expires on 31 December 2019 and replaces any previous acceptance.

New installations of this temporary traffic signal system must not be deployed on the state highway network after the expiry date of acceptance unless a further period of acceptance is granted.

The NZ Transport Agency reserves the right to rescind or modify, at any time, acceptance of the Peter Berghaus GmbH models MPB 3200 and MPB 3400 and may request submission an in-service report.
